Shortly afterward James Smith of Boston called on the same man. He was surprised to find the same free. He was hurried down stairs, but just as he was about to leave, he was seen to catch in a crotch, where he was seen to be in the air, but downward for nearly an hour before he could be picked up. MRS. EDDY ATTACKED BY MYSTERIOUS ADS

Offer to Furnish Copies of Bill in Equity Printed in Concord Papers—Mail Not Called for.

Special to the Boston American.
CONCORD, N. H., March 28.—The hand of some secret enemy of Mrs. Mary E. Eddy is seen by her friends in a disguised advertisement which appeared in each of the local newspapers of Concord yesterday.

The advertisement reads as follows: "Any person desiring a copy of the original bill in equity as filed with the clerk of the Superior court in the case of Mrs. Mary E. Eddy vs. the Concord papers, can obtain the same by sending a check for $1.00 to the undersigned. N. H., enclosing two recent stamps."

It is known that Mrs. Eddy's friends are several of them out to discover, if possible, the identity and the motive of the advertiser.

Three agents of General Frank N. Steiner, Mrs. Eddy's personal counsel, were letters asking for a copy of the bill. Until a late hour on one had appeared at the postoffice to receive mail addressed to Box 232, Postmaster James J. Sullivan said that he could not deliver the identity of the person who had placed the advertisement, until it was placed in publication yesterday, had not been made the several weeks.

Seek to Find Identity.

First costs, the price which is set by the advertiser, covers only the cost of mailing a copy of the bill. The cost of having the bill copied from the original in the office of the clerk of the court here at having it printed and mailed, as well as the cost of the envelopes and the

FORGIVES GIRL WHO POISONED HER BABY BOY

By Boston American Local Wire.
CARMEL, N. Y., March 28.—It won't go to an asylum where there are nothing but lunatics, I won't, I'll starve myself till I won't eat another bite.

This was the passionate outburst today of Jennie Burch when told to prepare to go to the asylum for the criminal insane at Middletown, to which she had been committed by Justice Mills on her demands because of insanity in the poisoning of the little William Venable, her only child, for whom she acted as nurse's mother.

It took the jury only ten minutes to decide the case. There was no defense, because the girl had told her own story, and she was not a sane woman. After the verdict, Mrs. Venable, the dead girl's mother, wept.

Caught in shaft, mangled, will live. FROSTVILLE, Va., March 28.—Caught by his clothing in a fast-moving machine belt and swung around a shaft before his screams brought aid, and the power was shut off, Fred Hall, employed in the Frostville Woolen Mill here, was fearfully injured yesterday. It is the Frostville Hospital with a broken leg, arm and jaw and minor several teeth. Physicians say he will recover.
